7. INDEMNITY AND RELEASE

7.1. The Client acknowledges that motor sport is dangerous and that accidents causing Personal Injury and loss or damage to property can happen and that the Client attends the Event at its own risk.

7.2. To the maximum extent permitted by law, you release, forever hold harmless and indemnify the Operator, its related entities (“Associated Companies”) and the directors, officers, employees, agents, contractors, partners, shareholders, representatives and members of the Associated Companies and any sponsors, promoters, or organisers of the Event (“Associated Entities”) from and against all and any Claims, arising out of or in connection with these Terms and the Client’s entry into and use of the Corporate Suites at the Event, including, without limitation, any Claim for any Personal Injury to the Client or any Guest, loss of or damage to the Client’s property and/or any Claims arising in connection with the Client’s participation or attendance at the Event including as a result of any acts or omissions (but excluding reckless conduct) of The Operator, the Associated Companies and/or the Associated Entities (the “Indemnitees”). This release and indemnity covers all Claims that the Client or anyone acting on behalf of the Client is able to exclude, release liability or indemnify in respect of, at law.

7.3. To the maximum extent permitted by law, all conditions, warranties, guarantees, rights, remedies, liabilities and other terms implied by statute, custom or the common law are excluded from these Terms. If a supply under these Terms is a supply of goods or services to a consumer within the meaning of the Australian Consumer Law as set out in Schedule 2 of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (“ACL”), nothing contained in these Terms excludes, restricts or modifies the application of any provision, the exercise of any right or remedy, or the imposition of any liability under the ACL which cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or modified, provided that, to the extent that the ACL permits us to limit our liability, then our liability will be excluded.

7.4. To the maximum extent permitted by law, neither the Operator nor the Client will be liable to the other for consequential losses. For the purpose of these Terms, consequential loss includes loss of profit, business interruption, loss of business opportunity or any other indirect, consequential, special, contingent or penal damage or loss.

7.5. The Operator may remove any person who, in the Operator’s sole discretion, is not acting in the interests of safety or is acting in such a way that is likely to cause damage, nuisance or injury in the Operator’s opinion.

7.6. The Client acknowledges and agrees that areas such as pit lane are dangerous and that there may be a possibility of an accident which causes Personal injury damage or other loss. The Client enters pit lane and other high danger areas at its own risk.

7.7. The Operator will not be liable for any loss or damage to an item of property owned by the Client or a Guest and brought into a Corporate Suite.

7.8. Entry of the Client to the Corporate Suites is subject to the Operator’s Terms and Conditions of Entry.

8. NOTICES

8.1. Any notice required to be given to a party in respect of the Hire must be in writing and delivered personally to the other party or be posted to the party to whom it is to be given at the party’s postal address, facsimile number or email address.

8.2. A notice sent by pre-paid post will be deemed to have been received two (2) Business Days after posting. If sent by facsimile or email, it will be deemed to have been received on receipt by the sender of a confirmation slip or other confirmation of transmission, provided that the onus of proving receipt by the other party shall be on the sender.

9. ASSIGNMENT

9.1. The Client may not assign or transfer its rights in these Terms without the Operator’s prior written consent. The granting of such consent is entirely at the discretion of the Operator.

9.2. The Operator may assign or transfer the Operator’s rights or obligations under these Terms without the Client’s consent.

10. PRIVACY

The Client acknowledges that the Operator may collect, hold, use and disclose the Client’s personal information for purposes related to Corporate Suite hire, running the Event and for any other purpose as set out in the Operator’s Privacy Policy which can be found at www.thebend.com.au.

11. SEVERANCE

If part or all of any clause of these Terms are illegal, invalid or unenforceable then it will be read down to the extent necessary to ensure that it is not illegal, invalid or unenforceable, but if that is not possible, it will be severed from these Terms and the remaining provisions will continue to apply.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION

These Terms are governed by the laws in force from time to time in South Australia. The parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of South Australia and the Commonwealth of Australia.
